Role assumed in the affair LÉGERET*

BATTISTOLO was a Member of the penal court of cassation at the cantonal court which has confirmed the condemnation of François LÉGERET to lifelong imprisonment by the court of PELLET, by decision of January 14, 2009 (the usual «copy/paste»).

Profile

This Vaudois cantonal «Judge» has studied law at the University of Lausanne late 1970, early 1980. He avoids contact with the mass media, and for this reason we have little information on the beginning of his career. COTTIER would probably call him a concealer.

Former cantonal investigating «Judge». In 2001, he already was in any case cantonal Vaudois «Judge». He quickly attracted negative attention on himself. In our database fifteen negative references are shown concerning him.

Among others, he covered two very serious medical mistakes, where he dysfunctioned as an instructing «Judge», hence his nickname «the One-Eyed». The Michèle HERZOG case clearly demonstrates that BATTISTOLO is also part of the Vaudois real estate mafia. So we are also here dealing with a judicial bandit.

He helped to cover up the passive corruption and the fraud by the federal «Judge» Roland Max SCHNEIDER, and has committed various other arbitrary decisions. However, at the height of his career, he is as well responsible for two judiciary crimes which can be added to his misdeeds.

BATTISTOLO was one of three VD cantonal «Judges» who confirmed PELLET's condemnation of François LÉGERET to life for an alleged triple murder (judgment of January 14, 2009). Because of a late witness, there was a revision, but the accomplice COLELOUGH (who was still then president of the district court of Lausanne) reiterated the conviction in March 2010. His second judicial crime was the Ségalat case.

Together with the retired Federal «Judge» Roland Max SCHNEIDER and the Super-Franco-Verda des Vaudois, he constituted a trio = the core of the judicial mafia.
