

Evaluation of the Judge VD Philippe COLELOUGH

He resigned as a senior official (Vaud) Switzerland. At the time, he called himself to be a cantonal «Judge». He became again a first instance «Judge» in Lausanne. He «worked» at the Palace of the Hermitage, Route du Signal 8, 1014 Lausanne, and now again at his office at Montbenon, Lausanne.

Home address: Chemin Neuf 94, 1028 Préverenges

Private telephone: 021 801 75 04 - 079 371 94 67

According to the 24 Heures of May 24, 2014, he resigned after falling in love with a colleague active at the criminal appeals chamber. This is Yasmina BENDANI. Since end of 2015, his new mistress cohabits officially with COLELOUGH.

The Super-Franco-VERDA of the Vaudois

The Super-Franco-VERDA of the Vaudois (see google search)

In April 2001, I discovered the corruption and the scams by the federal «Judge» Roland Max SCHNEIDER (see google search). The victim of this deception, the ETH architect Erhard KELLER can be contacted at his mobile number 0041 79 874 35 50.

Late 2001, I came across the Naghi GASHTIKHAH case who literally got looted by the Vaudois. He can also be reached at his cell phone 0041 78 761 61 39 or by e-mail: easybuildingch@gmail.com

These cases made me understand that the judiciary banditism has a solid tradition in the canton of Vaud.

At the same time, I met Marc-Etienne BURDET, another notorious protester whose reputation has also been dragged through the mud by the concentrated power of the media. He was the first who attracted my attention on COLELOUGH, at the time «Judge» of the North Vaudois and of Broye, who wreaked havoc closely with a gang active in real estate. For example with the notaries from Echallens Michel MOUQUIN (former radical President of the Grand Conseil VD, alcoholic), his colleague Roland NIKLAUS at Oron-la-Ville and the employee of the prosecution Office at Yverdon-les-Bains, Gilbert LAURENT.

BURDET analyzed several cases of judicial blunders, among others the one concerning his brother Michel BURDET, which he published on Internet.

Then COLELOUGH was appointed «Judge» for the district of Lausanne. In 2006 and early 2007 I had the opportunity have tough dealings with COLELOUGH – also in a real estate deal at the court of Montbenon/Lausanne. Three times he ordered me to sign the sale of my villa in St-Prex at a sold-off price along with his order «immediately enforceable, notwithstanding appeal» the last time in complicity with the villain notary Claude BALLY in Rolle. Aware of the real criminal banditry of COLELOUGH, and advised by a lawyer staying discrete, I managed to knock him out k.o. legally speaking.

Michèle HERZOG was not as lucky, because she did not know that the Vaudois real estate market is plagued by a Mafia better organized even than that of Marseille. Her mother had had two daughters of a first marriage, of whom Michèle. As second husband she married real-estate promoter Philippe GALLAND, and had yet another daughter. At 42, she finally gave birth to the Crown Prince Patrice GALLAND. At the father's retirement in 1994, Patrice GALLAND and took over the management of his father's companies, who died on June 5, 2003. His will stipulated that the three daughters (his own daughter Anne and the stepdaughters, including Michèle HERZOG) shall each inherit 10 % of the company Fontatrez Holding SA. The Crown Prince was going to get the rest that is 70 %. Michèle HERZOG, who has a computer science education, quickly realized that her stepbrother had retracted a good part of this inheritance to his opaque empire of companies, draining Fontatrez Holding SA to other companies under his control, before June 5, 2003, and establishing new entities and renaming them at fast pace before and after the father's death. She did not know that the Hydra of the Vaudois real estate Mafia had grown its heads way into the judiciary apparatus. Together with her half-sister Anne, they mandated the lawyer Philippe REYMOND for their defense, one of COLELOUGH's buddies.

Anne quickly resigned, but Michèle HERZOG continued to fight.

She wanted to prove that the inventory of the Fontatrez Holding SA company was biased. To determine this, there were among others in the civil proceedings case «document number 203» (the full inventory of the Galland & Cie SA shares – the parent company of Patrice GALLAND's empire – for the years 1999 to 2001) as a mandatory accounting piece of evidence. With cold blood REYMOND said that he had checked that document and found that everything was okay, while Patrice GALLAND – the assesse – said later, on August 18, 2009 through his lawyer Rémy WYLER, that he had never submitted this very document to this Mafia lawyer: «... has never been given to attorney Philippe REYMOND or to Michèle

HERZOG». As a result, the inventory of the total assets to be shared has not been done properly. And yet, for a succession, it is essential to know how much is to be shared.

The lawyer Philippe REYMOND was not the only one to have forged false documents in this case. Consequently, he has «sold» his client, Michèle HERZOG. In studying this file, you find that there is a whole gang composed of notaries and trustees, half the Who's Who of the world of the Vaudois real estate business, who delivered strange self-satisfying statements, false testimonies, document forgeries – all covered up by the Vaudois cantonal «Judge» BATTISTOLO (Decision of June 13, 2007), followed by COLELOUGH. This explains why the mentioned mafia members are so cheeky.

At the hearing of May 4, 2009, in the context of criminal proceedings launched by the lawyer Philippe REYMOND, for alleged infringement to his honor, Mrs. Michèle HERZOG banged her fist on the table and insisted to obtain the document number 203. Thereupon COLELOUGH interrupted the hearing, «until the legal situation is clarified as to know about the fate of the requisition to produce the document number 203 made by Michèle HERZOG in a note received at the courts administration service...» COLELOUGH understood therefore perfectly well that, at that time, there was an imperative need to take knowledge of this document number 203 (the inventory of the Fontatrez Holding SA company to establish the reality of the assets). Later, on page 7 of his judgment of September 23, 2010, COLELOUGH claimed «that this document (number 203) can therefore only be irrelevant to appreciate the diligence of the plaintiff Philippe REYMOND...» This is in flagrant contradiction with his own decision of May 4, 2010. If COLELOUGH had changed his mind to insinuate that this document was «irrelevant», it only proves that he is a Mafioso. Perhaps had he not yet performed the bribe on May 4, 2010 and that he had not yet been motivated at that time to commit a judicial crime.

Nevertheless, that document has never been delivered to Michèle HERZOG – an extremely serious dirty trick!

We will limit ourselves here to have shown in this case that the share according to the will of the deceased was impossible, because the inventory as a basis for that share had been cunningly hidden. Whoever is interested in further research on this case can look at Michèle HERZOG's blog «égalité des citoyens» (google search).

The cheaters make believe this real estate / financial case is complex, but it is wrong. One only needs to produce the content of the required document number 203 to finally estimate how much the company is really worth. The «Judge» COLELOUGH is smart – and he is one of the rare Swiss judges competent in financial affairs. COLELOUGH is the number one magistrate of the Vaudois to handle procedures related to finance, insurance and real estate. But he misuses his talents.

In 2009, he went a bit too far in his effort to whitewash the former CEO of the Banque Cantonale Vaudoise, Gilbert DUCHOUD, in the case of manipulated accounts. His superiors partially denied him later.

In contrast, COLELOUGH's former colleague at the college of Vaudois cantonal judges, Christian DENYS, elected federal Judge in 2011, must have an inferiority complex vis-à-vis the hotshot of Préverenges, because of the latter's superior skills in business. So as not to risk ridicule, DENYS will always confirm COLELOUGH's decisions reflexively. The federal «Judge» OBERHOLZER seems to belong to a similar category.

Yet DENYS is not a naïve but honest Magistrate. In this case, he participated twice to Michèle HERZOG's procedure in his capacity as a federal «judge», among others in the criminal proceedings PE07.020536-STP /ECO / ECP dated January 31st, 2011. But he did not have the honesty to spontaneously recuse himself when the appeal by Mrs. HERZOG with the Federal Court had to be treated (DENYS took his office as federal Judge during year 2011).

Since the injured party, Mrs. HERZOG called a spade a spade, the crooked lawyer Philippe REYMOND lodged a complaint for an alleged attack on his honor (for which there really is none), while article 173.2 of the Swiss Penal Code states that whoever speaks the truth cannot be sanctioned. Since May 2007, the lawyer Philippe REYMOND has declared in writing having examined the document number 203, which shows the inventory of the GALLAND & Cie SA shares on December 31st, 2001 (realized by M. Michel NICOLET of Audict Fiduciaire SA, mandated by REYMOND) and has said to have found everything okay. This is false because Patrice GALLAND said via his lawyer WYLER on August 18, 2009 that he had never transmitted this accounting document to Philippe REYMOND. Mrs. HERZOG has a legitimate right to complain about having been sold by her lawyer Philippe REYMOND. The author of this book goes even further in designating Philippe REYMOND as a mafia lawyer.

The botched investigation went one way and was led by the investigating «Judge» Stéphane PARRONE who indicted Mrs. HERZOG on January 21st, 2008 for defamation.

The key Magistrate in this case, COLELOUGH, condemned Michèle HERZOG without feeling the least little disturbed about it on September 23, 2010 for her having attacked the honor of Philippe REYMOND, although COLELOUGH has never hidden being his close friend. The cantonal «Judges» Muriel EPARD, Christian DENYS and Pierre-Henri WINZAP confirmed the perjury conviction on January 31st, 2011 and on October 13, 2011, the federal «Judges» Hans MATHYS, Roland Max SCHNEIDER and Laura JACQUEMOUD-ROSSARI rejected Michèle HERZOG's appeal, Her request for a revision was swept away on August 15, 2013 in an unusual short delay of a few days by the cantonal «Judges» Bertrand SAUTEREL, Aleksandra FAVROD and Marc PELLET, endorsed on November 3rd, 2014 by the insane federal «Judge» Hans MATHYS.

Since spring 2014, COLELOUGH resumed his position as a first instance Judge in Lausanne (after modestly resigning as a cantonal «judge», following his love affair with his colleague Yasmina BENDANI). It is at that first instance level that procedural truths get forged. Strategically, it is probably a more advantageous position for a Mafioso Judge, especially in combination to his close relationship with his gangster bride Yasmina BENDANI and his Mafioso boyfriend Blaise BATTISTOLO – all two VD cantonal «Judges». At the Federal Court, useful idiots such as Hans MATHYS, Christian DENYS and Niklaus OBERHOLZER will always corroborate the procedural truths in favor of this Vaudois Mafia. No, it is not excessive to designate COLELOUGH as the Super-Franco-VERDA of the Vaudois.

One can reasonably presume that the possible infringement to his salary on being degraded to a first instance «Judge» is largely compensated by his share in the spoils of racketing.

Role assumed in the affair LÉGERET

Jacqueline ALBANESI, called «la boulangère» announced herself to the authorities as a late witness, after the publication of the judgement of PELLET of June 27, 2008 in the mass media, saying that the triple murder in Vevey had occurred on December 24, 2005 around noon. But she had served the Lady physician Marie-José LÉGERET (who had been the doctor of her son Sébastien) together with her mother Ruth LÉGERET at the bakery shop just before closing it at 5 p.m. of that Christmas Eve. This has triggered off the revision trial, which took place in March 2010 before the tables of the «Judge» COLELOUGH. This Magistrate declared that witness to be not credible and confirmed on March 18, 2010 the condemnation of François LÉGERET to lifelong imprisonment, by «copy/paste» of the judgement of PELLET. There existed still no formal evidences nor confess – just «the inner conviction of the Judges». See:

www.worldcorruption.info/eng/legeret.htm

We have seen above that COLELOUGH is an intelligent Magistrate who is misusing his talents. He is for sure more clever than the Attorney General VD, Eric COTTIER. The author does not give any credit to COLELOUGH to think that he had acted in this case in good faith according to his «inner conviction», because his motivation to cheat at the costs of François LÉGERET was very concrete: to provide a tremendous service to the Architect of that judiciary crime, to the Attorney General Eric COTTIER. Is it fact that that one has very rapidly returned the favour to COLELOUGH, who was elected cantonal Judge on recommendation of COTTIER (24 Heures of March 10, 2010), just after the trial having taken place between March 1st and 5, 2010.

Profile

Former «Judge» in Moudon, followed by passages of the position of «President» at the Vaudois Eastern court in Vevey, at the Vaudois North court in Yverdon-les-Bains and the district court of Lausanne. He was a candidate for the position of cantonal «Judge» by the liberal party and elected by the Grand Conseil in spring 2010. - Army «Judge» = Politruk

COLELOUGH drew the attention of APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE IN 2001 for his class justice, his judicial banditism (economical crime) and abuse of power in an organized manner.

COLELOUGH presided François LÉGERET's revision trial in March 2010 and upheld his life imprisonment sentence for alleged triple murder, delivered earlier by his accomplice Pellet, in re-producing his judgment by copying /pasting it.

He was one of the «judges» of the cantonal court who broke Laurent SÉGALAT's acquittal at the first instance trial to sentence him to 16 years in prison for alleged murder.

COLELOUGH has been a close friend of the Lawyer Paul MARVILLE †, who has been a Freemason. Therefore it can be reasonably presumed that COLELOUGH is himself a Freemason.
